

Pastoral Ministry Support

13th December 2017

Hello!

We are touched by grief and loss within our own lives and those of our friends and loved ones.

Here's some possible helpful ways of coping during the holiday and festive times of the year.

I've also included a list of helpful reading to access.

Please pass this on to anyone you feel it could be helpful for.

Wishing you God's continuous blessings.

Take care and go gently.

Much love,

Paulineke
