

"We are all useful in this world..."

"We all deserve fun and enjoyment in life..."

"We do not live in isolation..."

"We can contribute in ways we may not be aware of..."

"We all have a longing and a need to belong..."

"How we are useful is up to us..."

"How we have fun and enjoyment is up to us..."

"How we live our life is up to us..."

"How we contribute is up to us..."

"How we find a place to belong sometimes needs encouragement from others..."

Declan
craft
Parish & Community Activities
St Declan's Parish
92 Penshurst St
Penshurst NSW 2222

Contact: Paulineke Nolan
(Declan craft Coordinator)
Phone: 0419 426 123
Email: wpnolan@internode.on.net
Website: www.stdeclanspenshurst.org

DECLAN

Something creative & social for the over 40s

Are you...

- 40 plus?
- seeking some type of intellectual, creative and fun activity?
- searching for a social network?
- wanting to be part of a parish and community activity?
- someone whose social needs are not already being met within the parish?

Then Declancraft may be for YOU!

Declancraft aims to

- offer an opportunity to find a social network within the parish community;
- offer support and community/parish involvement in a friendly, social atmosphere whilst encouraging creative activity;
- provide the opportunity for developing a long-term social network amongst participants.

Declancraft Activities and workshops

- Painting
- Handmade Cards
- Colouring-in and Doodling
- Jewellery Making
- Dancing
- Laughter Yoga
- Games
- Meditation
- Macramé

Bookings will be essential.

Stay tuned!

What

- Declancraft is a one to four-session INTRODUCTORY craft activity or workshop facilitated by a person skilled in a craft.
- Each session includes a social cuppa.

Where

- St Declan's Parish Meeting Room or Fernlands Hall.

When

- One to four weekly sessions.
- Saturdays.
- Times will vary depending on the particular craft and availability of the facilitator and venue.

Declancraft will be advertised in the parish bulletin, parish website, church noticeboard and posters.